HELLO

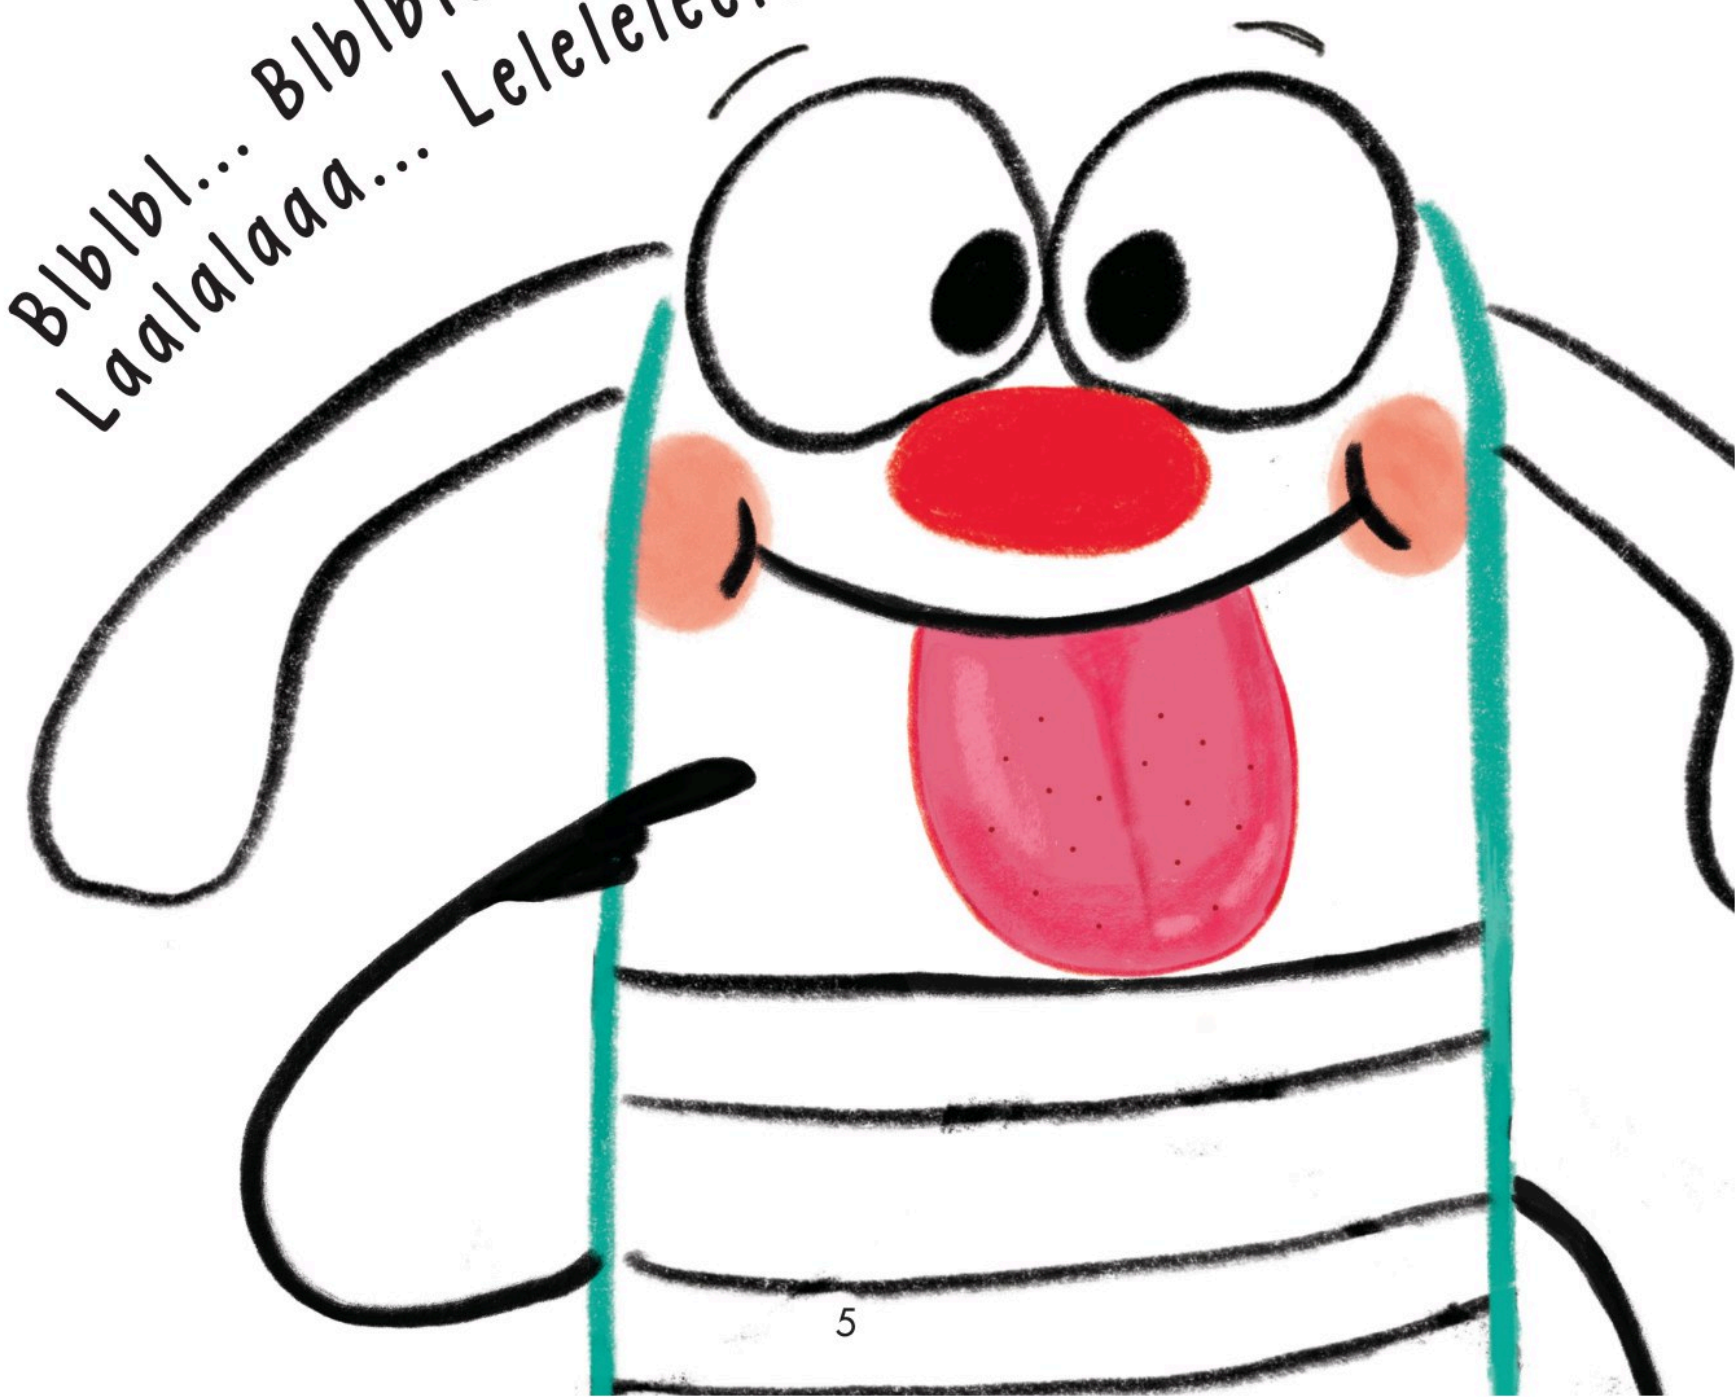

No No. I'm not sticking out my tongue at you!
I've got a question.

What's our tongue really for?

With taste buds lined up row by row,
it helps us taste different flavors.

But what are these flavors?

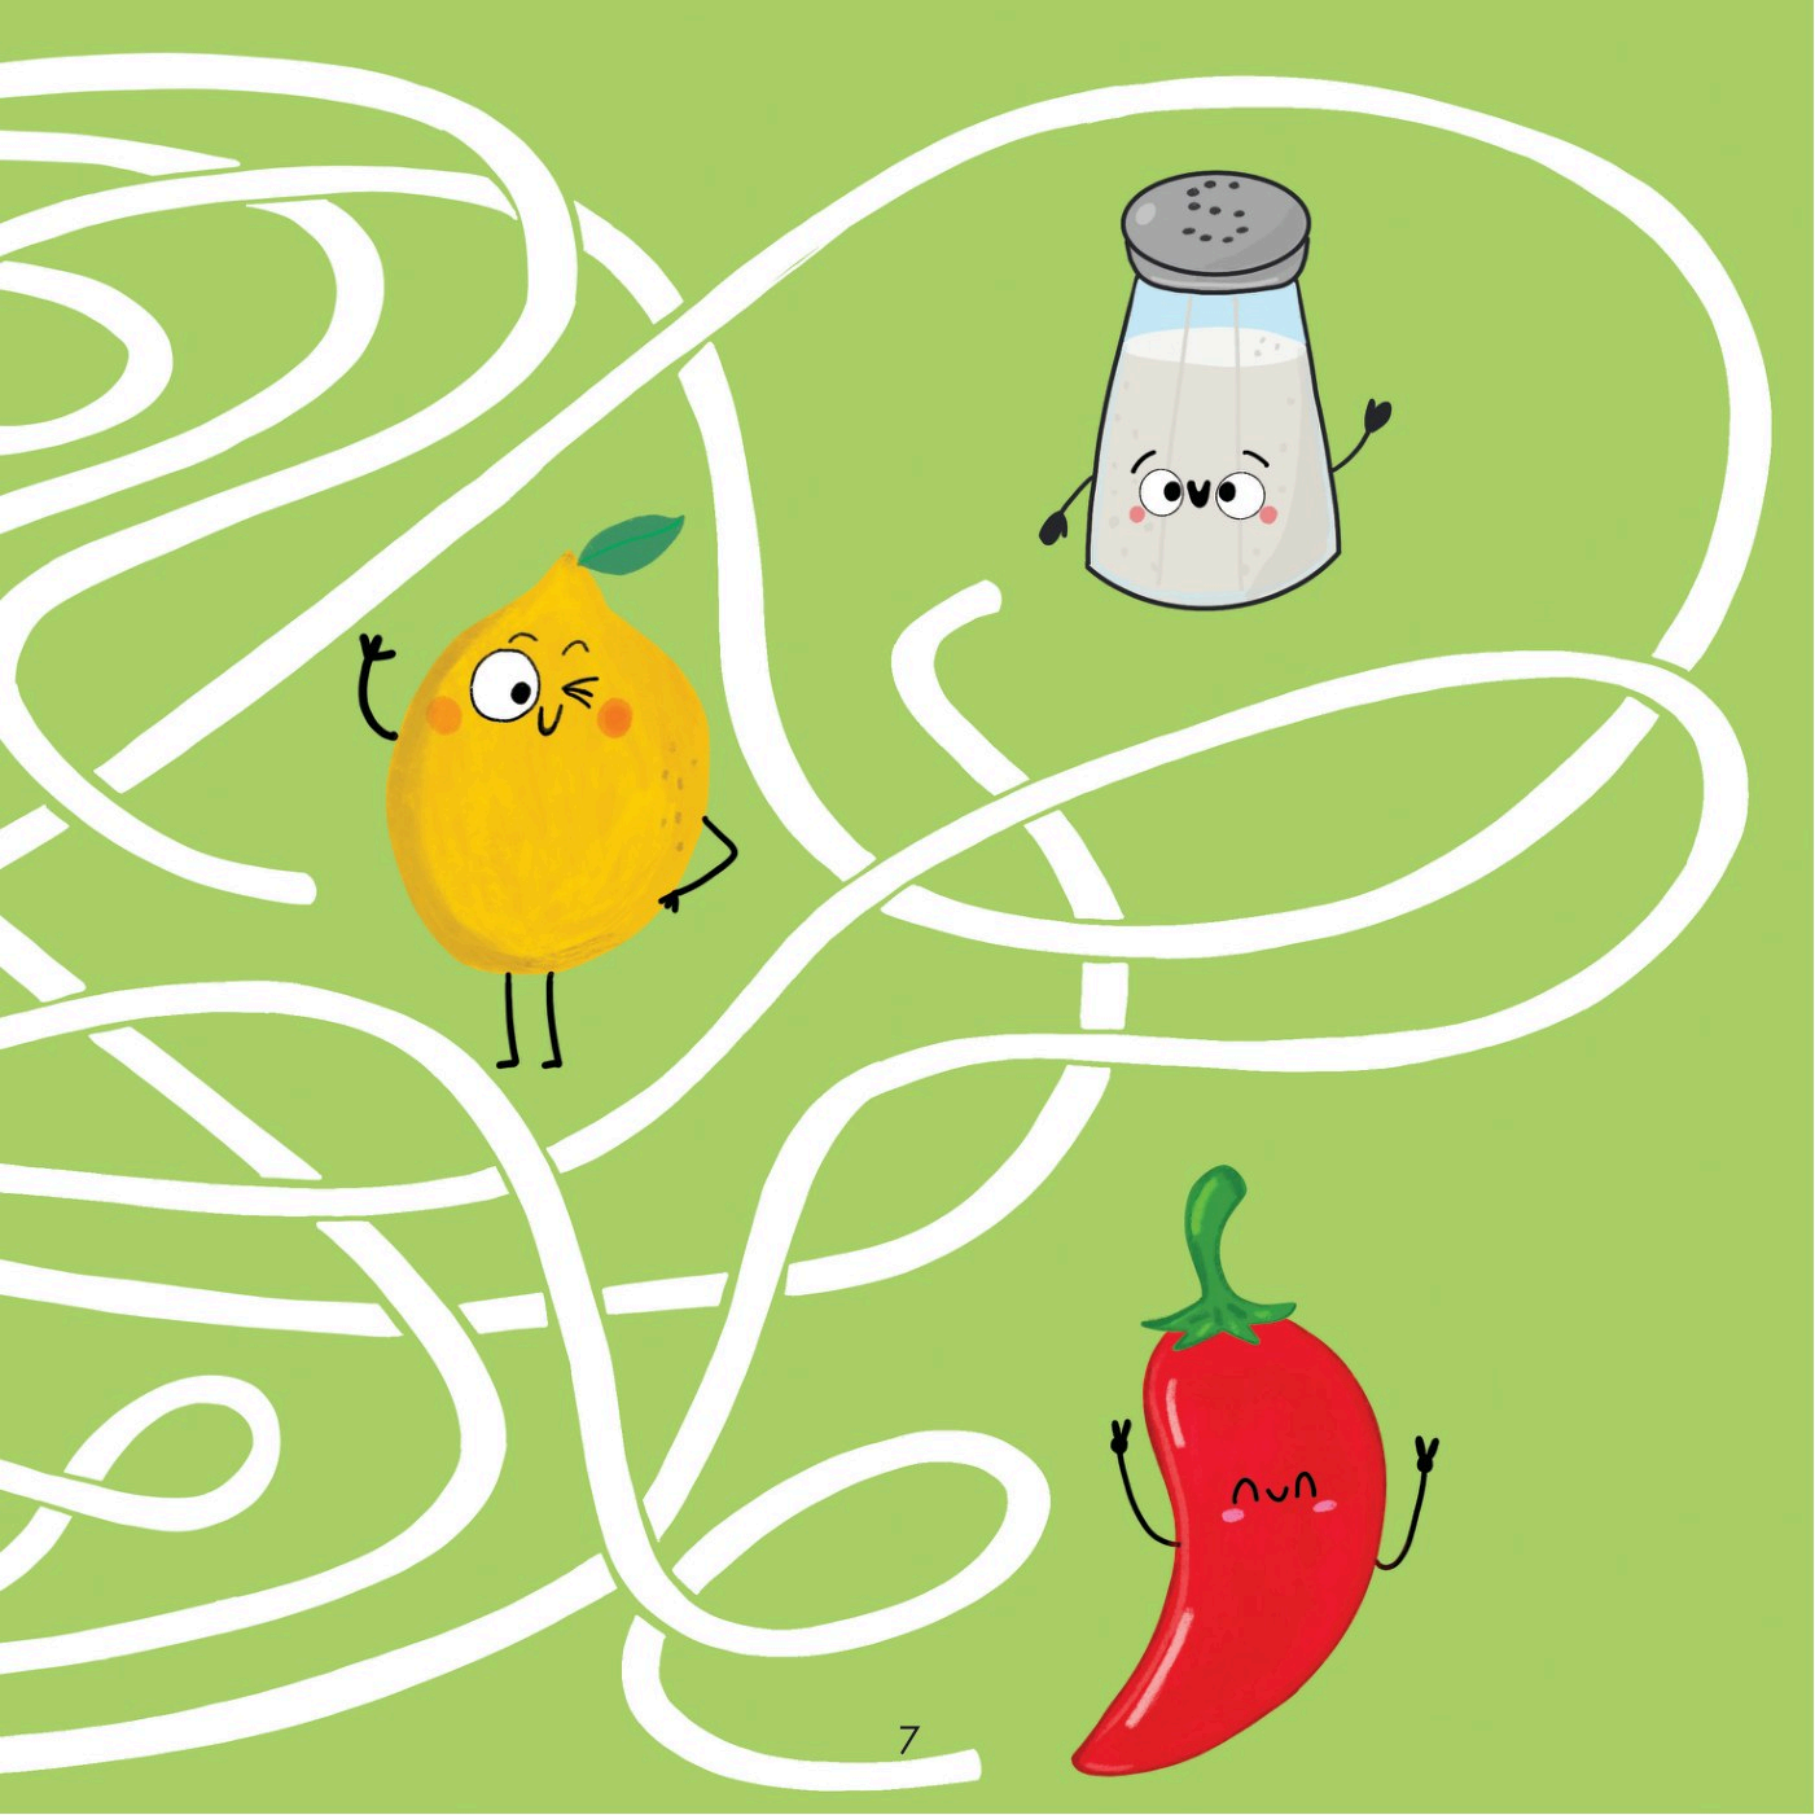

Bitter, sweet, salty, sour, umami...

Follow your tongue,
let it lead the way,
and you'll discover new tastes
all through the day!

Bitter

Bitter tastes always take courage!
That's why peppers are always there.

When it touches your tongue,
it starts with a spark.
It burns a little, but don't be scared, it fades with a bark!
