Mırmır was looking out the window. Mr. Tree was right across from him. There he was, gently waving his leaves.

Mırmır’s favorite playmate was Mr. Tree.
He loved to climb him and talk to him.

Then the weather got a little cold.
The sun played hide and seek in the sky.
Mırmır couldn’t go out to the garden like before. And Mr. Tree’s leaves were starting to turn yellow.

As Mr. Tree's green leaves turned yellow, Mırmır...

...played games,

purred and slept,

ate his food,

and sometimes watched his friend
from the window.

At last, all of Mr. Tree's green leaves turned brown and yellow. One day, a soft wind blew, and the yellow leaves shook a little. Then the wind blew stronger, and the brown and yellow leaves spun round and round as they fell.
