SERAP ŞAHİN

Born in 1982 in Izmir, Serap Şahin introduced Erzurum and its disadvantaged rural districts to theatre and books along with the Education Volunteers Student Club, which she founded during her university years. She has continued her career as an English teacher in Antalya, since 2005. In 2018, she launched and continues to lead the Düş Bavulu (Dream Suitcase) project, aiming to bring together numerous narrative languages and stories with children. With the P4C technique, she conducts works that question, discovering different associations as she questions.

BEYZA TOPRAK

She was born in 1995 in Ankara. She graduated from the Department of Child Development at Üsküdar University. Nowadays, she works as a child development consultant. She combined her passion for drawing and technology with her profession and started working as an illustrator. With each session, she strives to touch the lives of families, and with each illustration, she aims to leave a mark in the children's worlds.

To all the writing enthusiasts...

The little girl adored pencils.
Long, short, thin, thick, matte, shiny,
glittery and the ones with the eraser....
All of her pencils were of many colors.

With them, she would draw pictures of everything, color everywhere,

And even sang songs and danced.

But that wasn't all she wanted to do with them.

Her biggest dream was to write a story with her pencils one day. Just like the story she had read countless times... But, how was one to write a story?
