My name is Rüya.
I slip my magic shoes onto my feet
and set off on an adventurous journey...

Along the way, I ask everyone
I meet the same question:

"Where do you think magic is?"

Tip -Tap I walk through the forest.
The voice of the forest reaches my ears.

The leaves sway, "rustle, rustle"
The wind blows, "swish, swish"
The branches go, "crackle, crackle"
It is as if the whole forest is whispering
the same secret...

Suddenly, a squirrel appears,
hop-hop-hoping along.

Its tail is almost as big as the rest of it...

I walk up and ask,

"Good morning, sweet squirrel!
Where do you think magic is?"

The squirrel thinks and scratches its nose...
Then it places a tiny acorn into the little hole it has dug.
It gently covers it, looks at me, and smiles:

"Perhaps magic lies in tiny hopes waiting to grow."

I smile and thank the squirrel.

Then I think to myself:

"Perhaps magic lies in a tiny hope growing into a mighty tree."
