Özlemiyle duygularımı besleyen canım babama,
varlığıyla bana onu yeniden yaşatan oğlum Can'a ve bahçedeki mandalina ağacımıza...

Judi lived with her family in a house with a very big garden.
Both their garden and their home were filled with flowers in all kinds of colors.

One day, Judi noticed that one of the rosebushes had a bud. She called out to her mother with excitement. "Mommy, look! There's a little baby rose here!"

"Yes, my sweet one," her mother said. "A new life is beginning there. That baby rose will grow and turn into a big, beautiful rose."

Every day, Judi went to the flowerpot to watch the baby rose grow. She waited for it to turn into a big red rose with large leaves. Seeing the rose grow a little more each day made Judi feel both amazed and excited.

Every morning after breakfast, Judi grabbed the watering can and ran straight to the garden.

One day, she saw that the leaves of one of the geraniums had started to wilt, and she felt very sad. Together with her mother, they carefully picked away the withered parts.
