Ezo and Samba were getting ready to go to the park, just like they did every day. Ezo wanted to draw some pictures there. She put crayons, paints, and paper in her bag. Samba wanted to take a ball to play with. Once they were ready, they didn't waste any time getting to the park.

Ezo took out her crayons, paints, and paper
and started to draw.

Samba played with the ball next to her.

Ezo dipped her brush in blue paint,
and then the yellow paint, and started to draw beautiful pictures on the paper.

Samba, who was chasing after her ball,

suddenly put her paw into the blue paint.

She didn't even notice though, and kept running around the park, leaving blue footprints everywhere.
