In of his poems Rumi says, "I love my friends neither with my heart nor with my mind. Just in case... Heart might stop. Mind can forget. I love them with my soul. Soul never stops or forgets."

My dear friends Murat and Özlem, whom I love with my soul, this book couldn't be written without you.

I am very grateful to be able discover it with you.

My big sister Sara talks with her hands and listens with her eyes.

But I still don't know how to talk with my hands.

Some evenings, we shine lights on our hands and play with their shadows by making funny shapes.

From the smile on her face, I know how much my big sister loves this game.

At such moments, I want to say to her how much I love her.

But how can I explain it to someone who listens with their eyes? Perhaps I can find a way...
