Blue opened its eyes, and at once called out to its partner, "You look so beautiful again today!" Its partner was very kind, as always. "Thank you. You are very beautiful and bright as well," she replied.

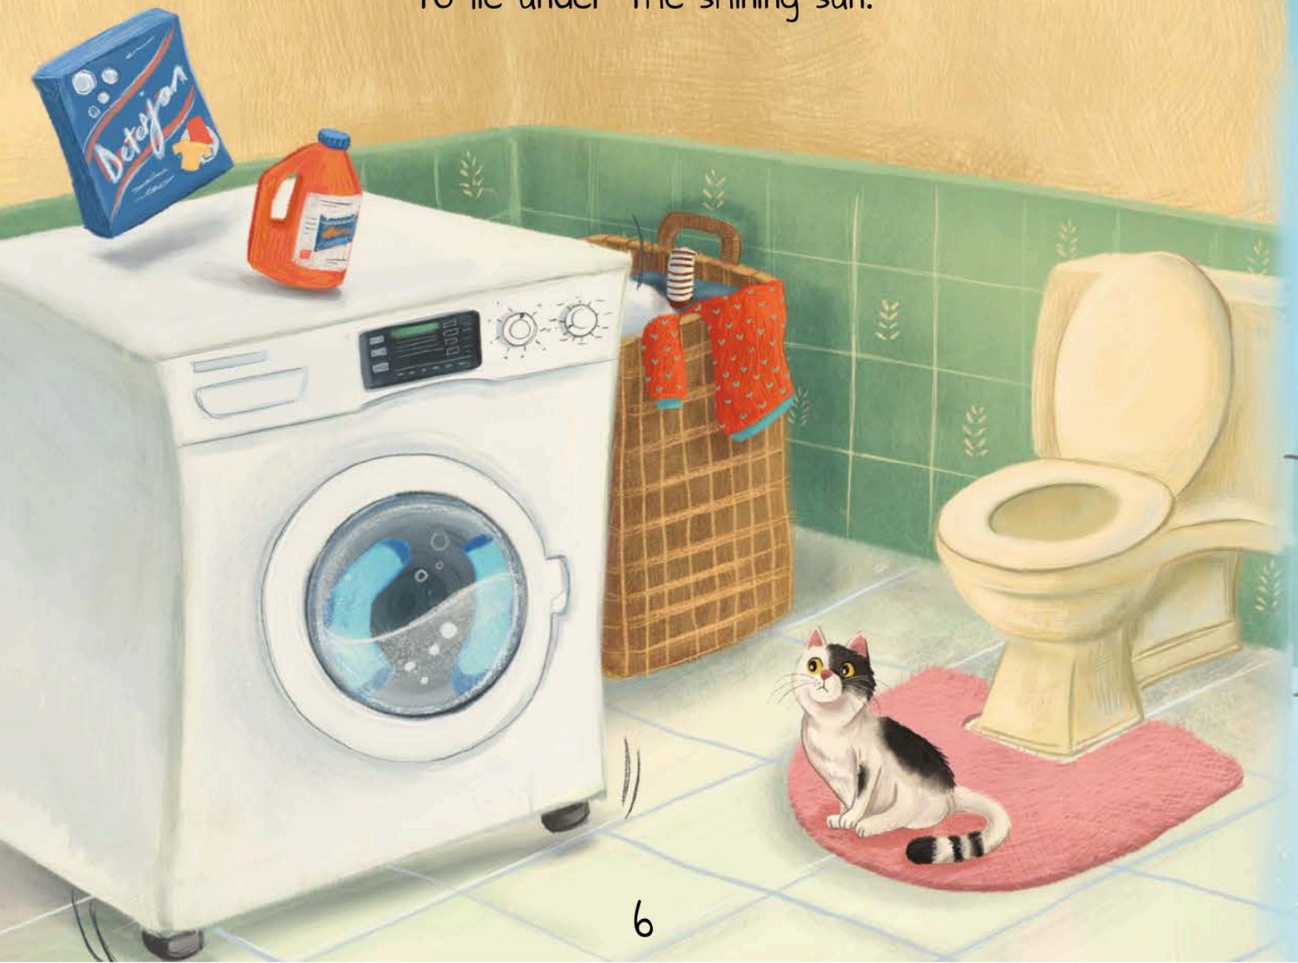

They chuckled softly. They moved to the kitchen for breakfast and chatted under the table for a long time.

Then they settled into the soft couch to watch their favorite cartoon. Once the cartoon ended, the Blues went outside. Running and jumping were their favorite things to do. And taking a bath together was also very exciting.

First, they held their breaths then jumped into the big pool.
They chased each other in the swirling water for minutes.
Frothing nicely, they rinsed off. Then it was time to dry off, to lie under the shining sun.

Holding onto the clothespins, they chatted as the sun shone.
"I'm so lucky to have a partner. What would I do without you? What good would I be? Who would want me without you?" said Blue.

Smiling, its partner replied,
"What about me? I am also very lucky.
Without you, I'd be alone and bored."
