This morning, Samba was the first to wake up. Actually, she hadn't been able to sleep much, she was very excited, because today was her birthday, and Samba loved birthdays! As soon as Samba woke up, she ran to Ezo. Ezo was still a sleep.

The house was very quiet, that meant no one was awake yet. Samba curled up in her bed and waited for everyone to wake up. First Ezo's mom woke up, and Samba ran up to her, her tail wagging, looking her in the eye. "I wonder if she remembers my birthday?" she thought.

Mom pet Samba, "You're awfully happy and full of energy this morning," she said, but she didn't wish her a happy birthday.

Right after that, Ezo's older brother Alex woke up. This time, Samba ran around Alex excitedly. Alex pet Samba's back, wrapped her in his arms and hugged her, but he didn't say happy birthday.
