"I'm going to be a time machine mechanic!"

Luna shouted suddenly.

Everyone looked at her in surprise,
trying to understand what she meant.

"What nonsense!"
said someone else.

Another laughed at her doubtfully.

"Yes, you heard
me correctly!
I'm going to fix time
machines!"

"I think she's lost her mind,"
added the girl from next door.

"Let's mind our business," said another.

"We're all so fed up with all these silly daydreams," added someone else.

"There's no such thing as a time machine,"
someone told her.

Luna wasn't bothered by them.
She didn't stop reading,
researching, and dreaming.
